Description of entry:

All parade entrants must be lined up by 5:30pm on Second Street

All entries, with the exception of horses, should have some sort of lighting since the parade is at night.

Motorcycles, race cars, antique cars and trucks are permitted, but keep in mind that small children are easily frightened by loud noises.

For safety reasons, entrants will not be allowed to throw candy to parade bystanders. However, entrants will be allowed to handout candy to parade bystanders.

For health reasons, animals should wear a bag for waste unless other provisions are made for immediate cleanup.

Remember there is only one Santa attending the parade and an organization has already been assigned to provide this float.
